IONITY LOWERS CHARGING PRICES

- > Price per kilowatt-hour in the IONITY DIRECT tariff (ad hoc) lowered by 0.10 euros per kilowatt-hour in Germany and France and by 1.41 NOK in Norway
- > IONITY PASSPORT subscribers receive a discount of 0.20 euros* from ad-hoc price at a low monthly fee and flexible contract term
- > Price decrease will take effect from 16 August 2023 and applies to around 60 percent of all IONITY High Power Charging (HPC) points in Europe

Munich, Germany, 16 August 2023 – IONITY lowers charging prices in Germany, France and Norway. Starting today, the price per kilowatt hour (kWh) for charging at HPC charging points with up to 350 kW without a contractual commitment will drop by 0.10 Euro/kWh in Germany and France and by 1.14 NOK/kWh in Norway. Around 60 percent of all IONITY HPC charging points are located in Germany, France and Norway.

As a result, IONITY customers charging with the IONITY DIRECT tariff (ad hoc) will now pay 0.69 Euro/kWh in Germany, 0.59 Euro/kWh in France and 6.99 NOK/kWh in Norway. Further price reductions when charging in IONITY's HPC network are offered with the IONITY PASSPORT subscription: at a monthly fee of 11.99 euros, the price per charged kilowatt hour (kWh) of electricity is always 0.20 euros* below the valid IONITY DIRECT rate in the respective country. As of 16 August, subscribers will e.g. pay 0.49 Euro/kWh in Germany. The IONITY PASSPORT has flexible contract terms and can be booked anywhere via the IONITY APP - even directly at the charging station before starting the charging process.

With currently more than 500 charging parks and over 2500 charging points in 24 European countries, IONITY offers the largest HPC network open to all brands. Customers appreciate the availability and reliability of the charging network as well as the transparency of tariffs and billing processes.

IONITY continues to focus on the greatest possible price stability, while increasingly taking into account regional market differences with regard to electromobility. Charging prices in all European countries are transparently displayed on the IONITY website and in the IONITY APP.

For illustration: An electric vehicle with an average consumption of 20 kWh/100km consumes 60 kWh of electricity for a distance of 300 km. For example, anyone who charges with IONITY in Germany using the IONITY Direct rate without a contractual commitment will pay 41.40 euros instead of 47.40 euros as of 16 August. IONITY PASSPORT subscribers pay 0.49 Euro/kWh and a total amount of 29.40 euros for 60 kWh plus a monthly fee of 11.99 euros. Hence the subscription pays off if more than 60 kilowatt hours (kWh) of energy are charged within a month.

*Deviations may occur due to the respective local currency, country-specific VAT rates.

About IONITY

IONITY is building and operating the largest open brand high-power charging (HPC) network along European highways. The HPC charging capacity of up to 350 kW allows maximum charging speeds.
